Once and For All

Week Five Start Making Money

You have come so far already, cleaned up your old disempowering patterns and laid your new foundation. NOW it's time for you to start making money.

First, you have to decide that it's time for YOU to start making money. Have you decided? It sounds like an obvious question but it's not. I discovered at the beginning that I had not really decided that I wanted – and deserved – to make a lot more money than I was making. I had to consciously make that decision before anything could change. Now you will experience the shift that happens when you make the decision....and develop a coherent, exciting plan to get your goal

This week you will:

- Powerfully decide that now is YOUR time to tune into your power by declaring to the Universe that you are going to prosper no matter what.
- Create or recommit to your big “why” – decide what will the money be FOR—so you will be pulled inexorably toward your prosperity
- Get into ACTION: Take the necessary next steps to claim your desires.

Week Four Check In:

It's really important that you track your progress each and every week so that you can be accountable to your intention and desire. So please review Week Four's Action Steps and check the boxes if you completed the action steps. If you have not completed the Action Steps for prior weeks, please go back and work through the guidebooks and complete all of the Action Steps so that you will have a solid foundation to build upon. Fair enough?

- Complete last week's form entirely taking time to answer each question and doing every exercise
- Journal about your debt story with the intention to heal and empower yourself.
- Practice breathing with your inflow breath and out flow breath and relate that feeling to your relationship with money.
- Follow Amanda's 5 Step Debt Pay Off Plan (if applicable)
- Celebrate yourself...

Time for You to POP!

Ok Loves, it is really time for you to POP and to start making money now so that you can claim your destiny. No doubt about it. My intention this week is to support you in saying YES to making money a reality not just a fantasy.

We have done so much inner and outer work in this course to get you to this point. The money drama must end for good because that chaos only breeds more chaos. Have you firmly decided to end the money drama and get off of the feast or famine rollercoaster? Have you put a fork in it?

Yes No Maybe

Please explain...

If no, what stops you?

Where have you gotten stuck?

Where have you succeeded and prospered?

What big leaps and steps have you said YES to?

Create or Recommit to Your Big “WHY”

Know what will the money be FOR so you will be pulled inexorably toward your prosperity

The amount of money you are letting in is a reflection of your self esteem. You must do the necessary inner work to love and believe in yourself in order to transform your wealth consciousness. You may believe that you have a good self esteem but if you are in lack you are not in love and you are out of alignment with the fundamental truth of the Universe. As women, we are conditioned to not out shine others and to be humble and to play small. So when we get out into the world to play this money game a lot of that feeling of not wanting to out shine others comes into play which is no longer serving any of us! Most likely you are extremely qualified in a multitude of ways to receive money and to magnetize your desires to you.

You are worthy of every desire that is in your BIG HEART.

To support you in seeing and claiming your worth and your value... let's start with the basics...

What credentials do you have? List certificates, degrees, trainings, classes, ongoing education, coaching programs you've invested in etc..

What experience do you have? This could be anything from home birthing your child to trekking in Peru. LIST all of the experience you have here!

Are you good at what you do? Please explain.

How good at what you do are you? Give it to me! This is your chance to brag!

How much will it cost you to NOT claim your worth and your value? Go into massive detail here... really how much will it cost you.....

Emotionally...

Financially...

Physically..

What will it cost your loved ones.... (kids, spouse, your tribe, and your legacy)

Your soul...

Get into ACTION: Take the Necessary Next Steps to Claim Your Desires.

Amanda's 5 Steps to Make Money

1. You must be crystal clear on your vision. Know how much money you desire. And WHY you desire this money.

2. Your desire for this money cannot be wishy-washy or laid back. Instead, it MUST be a MUST. If it is not a MUST, it is a wish. Bring yourself to making your money desire a MUST no matter what. When it is a MUST, like your life depends on it, it MUST come to you.

Warning: Do not give up EVER on your MUST. This is where most people fail, they GIVE UP and quit and turn back into their LB's before the 11th hour. You must be COURAGEOUS and BOLD and HUNGRY enough to bring in your manifestation.

Try this a couple of times and watch the miracles manifest in the 11th hour. Soon enough your confidence and TRUST in yourself and in the Universe will strengthen and you will be UNSTOPPABLE. This is what you see me do (and anyone else who is successful). Now it's your turn!

3. Listen to your intuition about this money. If you get a hunch or a gut feeling about something, even if it doesn't make sense, follow your gut! Your gut feeling never lies to you. You can trust your gut every time.

4. Act! This is one of the places in which people falter in the manifestation process. You MUST ACT as if the money is here. You must take leaps of faith. You must take massive inspired action steps/ leaps every time in order to bring in your money desire. There is a man in MANifesting for a reason. Manifesting is an artful blend of both the feminine and masculine energies. The masculine energy is the engine, and the feminine intuitive hunches, and listening, is what fuels the massive engine of action. Be willing to ACT in spite of fear. Be willing and ACT in spite of naysayers. Be willing to do whatever it takes to bring in your money. You must want it like a sought after lover.

When you are in LOVE, you do crazy stuff like stay up all night with your lover. You are riding on the waves of love.

Let your manifestation process be the same.

Take action and promise to do your very best until the 11th hour and you will always make your mark.

5. F'in Focus! No more bright shiny objects. You must FOCUS like a gold medal athlete in order to get gold medal results. By focusing singularly on your vision and your goal you will make your mark. If you waver or start doing a million different things you will falter. It really can be very simple once you decide that you are DONE with the feast or famine rollercoaster. Let it be easy!

It's time for you to start making money!

How do you feel when I say this?

What resistance comes up for you? Because if you are not currently making money, you are resisting being a woman or man who makes money.

It's time for you to stop hiding behind your "I don't have money story."

It's time for you to seriously start making money.

When I first heard that from my mentor when I was at my rock bottom, it scared me but something deep within me knew that now was my time to take my place in the spotlight. It was time for me to be visible. It was time to be heard and to be seen and to be used by the divine for the greater good of all.

It's time for you to grow up and to get in the GAME of money.

It is your turn to be seen.

It is your turn for your unique VOICE to heard.

It is your time to shine.

It is your soul's destiny to do the "work" you were born to do.

The good news is that you are the ONLY one blocking you from claiming your space on the planet!

How much money do you want to receive/make/serve in 2013?

How much money in-flows would you like to receive each month?

Here is the golden question...

How would a _____ figure business woman/man act in this situation? Use this question ANYTIME you are about to make a decision with money. Act as if!

What is your plan for making this money? Brainstorm in the space below how you could make this money. Hint: it's helpful to work with a coach, mentor and your mastermind group to map out your marketing plan. Do not try to do this totally alone.

If you had 100 million bucks in the bank what would you LOVE to do?

What kinds of programs or packages would you love to create?

What is your 2013 VISION for your business and money? Hint.. enjoy some time to really reflect on this question.

Are these programs and packages marketable.. meaning will people whip out their credit card/debit card for this idea. This is a crucial question you must ask before you promote anything. It could be the difference between making your money goal or not. Unfortunately in this day and age, you have to market to the reptilian part of the brain!

Now it's seriously your time to make money.

In the space below brainstorm 20 ways in which you can make money right now. If you ever get stuck or tight with money, immediately make a list of 20 ways in which you could make some extra cash. It's fun and easy, play it like a game but be sure to ACT on your list.
